this text will help work based students to successfully navigate academia it is a hands on guide for learners helping them to get the most out of their university experience the architectural crit review or jury is a cornerstone of architectural education around the world students defend their ideas drawings and models in open forum before staff and fellow students what academic staff see as healthy creative debate students see as hostile confrontation an ego trip for staff and humiliation for them this accessible and readable book written by students and illustrated by telling cartoons guides them through this academic minefield with creative humour it provides practical advice based on experience of many recent students and draws on recent experimentation at sheffield university and de montfort university leicester the aim is twofold first to suggest how to get the most out of the traditional experience and second to describe ways in which this is being developed into an experience that will be more constructive and prepare future students to build more creative relationships with clients and users and across the industry while much has been written about the crit review or jury little has been done to prepare students for it or to develop it in the light of changing professional attitudes and relationships this book is a timely guide to a timeless experience in a changing profession many students arrive at university with the idea that this will be the time of their lives however some students find that being a fresher is not all it s cracked up to be they are not immediately at ease with university culture and find it hard to deal with the day to day issues arising from living away from home the student life handbook draws on the experiences of over 160 students from all over the uk to offer practical advice on balancing domestic demands with university study covering many aspects of university life such as finance accommodation leaving home and joining the social scene this guide will help students reap the greatest possible benefit and enjoyment from their time at university
